Alex. Brown was surprised at his home at 7 Kirk street on Wednesday evening by thirty of his friends. A very enjoyable evening was spent playing games and singing, and refreshments of cake and coffee were served during the evening.

Lizzie Smart, in behalf of the company, presented him a beautiful gold ring.

A party of people was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hooker at a six o'clock dinner last evening.

After the dinner the party played progressive whist, there being six tables playing. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. James Goodwin and H. W. Whitcomb, the consolation prizes to Mrs. Daniel McLeod and E. D. Ladd.

The mothers of the Athens club entertained their children by giving a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. Bugbee, last evening from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. Games suitable for the occasion were played and refreshments served. Much credit is due Mrs. Bugbee and the committee for the very pleasant evening's entertainment.

An immense block of granite was hauled down through the streets yesterday, measuring five feet, by five feet, by six feet—a chunky mass weighing in the neighborhood of nineteen tons. With twelve horses on ahead, Sumner Newcomb got the load down from the hill to the city without mishap. The granite was from the Melver and Matheson quarry and was consigned to local parties.

"In the Bishop's Carriage," a dramatization of Miriam Michelson's novel by Channing Pollock, author of "The Pit," is the bill at the Barre opera house, Saturday evening, February 16. The production made by Liebler & Co. is handsome and appropriate, and the cast is one of the strongest that this firm sends out. The difficult role of Nance O'Brien, a beautiful young woman who cannot resist the temptation to appropriate other people's property, is taken by Jessie Busley, who has until the present season been under the management of Charles Frohman.

One of the wonders of this age is the moving pictures, and with each year great advancement is made along this particular line. During the coming engagement of the Edwin J. Hadley Co., the usual large and representing audience will have the pleasure of seeing another superb programme, which will be the finest this organization has ever presented. The colored views will be a revelation to those interested in color photography. Always clean and high class, the Hadley exhibition is conceded to be the most popular attraction of its kind, now before the public. At the opera house Tuesday, February 19th.

The Daylight Store

This Is Good Weather to Do Your Spring Sewing.

Although we are very anxious to clean up all of our winter stock, and have put prices on them that are doing it, we are just as anxious to give you the new spring clothes as soon as they are ready, as we realize that many ladies like to do their sewing when the weather is such that they cannot get out much. Our Spring Goods are arriving every day, and you will find the line larger and better than we have ever before shown.

NEW MALTA SUITING

The Malta Suiting is a new goods which is sure to be very popular this season, for ladies' suits or misses' dresses. It is a cloth which has a fine finish and will not crush or muss up, and if you want a cloth that will wear well and keep its finish you will make no mistake by trying these cloths.

These popular Suitings come in navy blue, garnet, medium blue and white, are 42 inches wide and cost 50 cents per yard.

A line of 50 cent goods which are of good value come in a variety of colors, in plaids, checks and stripes and are 40 inches wide.

NEW DANISH CLOTHS.

To those who have been waiting for our Colored Danish Cloths to arrive, we would say we received same this week, so now have a good line of them for your selection.

These are a cloth which for the price cannot be equaled for value, as they are a cloth that have enough body so they drape nicely and are of exceptional worth as to the wearing qualities.

The colors we have just received are cadet blue, navy blue, scarlet, cardinal and white. Same are 36 inches wide and are 25 cents per yard.

We are one of the few houses in Vermont that have the Spotless Steam Sponger. All nice wool goods should be sponged before being made up. We sponge nearly every morning.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

If it's Black Dress Goods you want, we can show you some values which are of extra worth.

An Imported Black Cecelian, which is extra good for separate skirts or suits, is 42 inches wide and sells for $1.35. This is a cloth that has a finish like silk, and will keep its lustre until worn out.

A very popular black cloth is a Chiffon Poplin, has a nice finish and is soft and fine. Especially good for suits or separate skirts, does not crush. Come 42 inches wide and sells for $1.00 per yard.

Black Voils will be worn a great deal for separate skirts. We are showing a fine Altman veil 42 inches wide at $1.00 per yard.

Other good values in Melrose, Panama, Poplin, Serges and Henriettes at popular prices.

At the City Bakery!

On oath and honor we hereby most positively declare that our Double Loaf Malt Bread, made of Pillsbury's flour and by Union bakers, is the best in the State. If you doubt our word try just one loaf and you will be convinced of its superiority to any other. You will notice also that it is white and light and yet firm.

Why is it that Mother's Bread was always good? Because it was made by hand and kneaded, and that is why ours is good. It is properly kneaded. Try one loaf, if no more. All leading grocers and butchers handle it, as follows: Merchant & Fraser, H. J. Smith, Dix & Coleman, Smith & Cummings, Tassie Brothers, John Griffin, J. D. Yandow, Aldrich, Graniteville, and Hopkins, Williamstown. Also leading restaurants and lunch rooms: Spear Brothers, Jack's Lunch Room, Miller's Baltimore Lunch Room and Graniteville Lunch Room.
